Become a part of Mass Vaccination Drive in UK

Although it seems tough to move to another country for further studies during this pandemic. However, Indian students seem to be keen to gain admission in UK universities to be a part of Mass Vaccination drive in the UK as UK becomes the first country to approve Pfizer/BioNTech vaccine against COVID-19.

The best part for Indian students is that the UK has been successful in creating a home away from home for them with full support from their university and the Indian High Commission, making it easy for them to survive in a foreign country without a part-time job due to the pandemic. The students seem to enjoy a unique blend of online classes and limited lab-access to assure that their time is not wasted due to these circumstances.

CHRISTMAS THIS YEAR

In the UK, Christmas is the time to families to come together and be with each other which includes exchanging of gifts, traditional turkey dinner wherein the celebration last from December 24th – 2nd January. Festive foods include mince pies, Christmas pudding, mulled wine and yule logs. In the current situation, universities are extending Christmas and New Year holidays, although the libraries will remain open for limited hours to catch up with the research work. The universities advice the students to celebrate the festival this year indoors to contain the situation till the Mass Vaccination in the UK fall into place.

VOCABULARY DOES IT ALL!

Vocabulary is an important aspect when it comes to IELTS as this is the only thing that is common in every skill be it Listening, Reading, Writing or Speaking! The interesting part being that it can be systematically grasped based on the topic. Remember, just learning the words, won't be enough, what counts here is using them properly!

STUDENT'S SPEAK

Sharing my personal experience with Fateh. I had applied for higher studies in Ireland through Fateh Education and they were very prompt and professional. Ms. Shenbagavalli was very informative, prompt & guided me patiently through the process. Would recommend it to other folks as well.

-Manoj Kumar

I had done some research myself but my counselor Shengabavalli gave me some direction and helped me out with the application process. She was really prompt and had answers to all my questions. Had a very pleasant experience with Fateh Education. Very professional, the organisation and Shenba. They are easily the best of you're planning to study in the UK. - Rohit Balaji
